

Employed Worker Training

Keeping the wheels turning

Looking for a training program that meets your ever changing needs?

Maricopa County's Employed Worker Training Program helps a business or group of businesses increase the skills of their current workforce. The program reimburses businesses up to 50 percent of eligible costs for delivering customized training to individuals in demand jobs and occupations.

To determine your maximum allowable grant amount, a number of factors are considered, such as the employer size, benefits package provided to the employees, the number of employees that require training, and the training impact has on the individual employee and employer.

Once the training dollars are awarded, you may take up to one year to complete the approved training program. All applications are taken on a first-come, first-served basis, and grants are awarded based on the availability of funds at the time the application is approved.
